Laws of the United States.

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 131.]

AN ACT for the relief of the Register of the land office at Vincennes, Indiana, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be [illegible] authorized to make such allowance [illegible] during the temporary [illegible] of the land office at Vincennes, Indiana [illegible] just and proper.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said [illegible] adjust the account of [illegible] at Vincennes, Indiana, and [illegible] services connected with the books, papers, and so forth of the land office at Vincennes, Indiana, during the time [illegible] same were in his charge under instructions from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, [illegible] September the third, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, those allowances [illegible] for incidental expenses of district [illegible] Provided, That the total sum paid in [illegible] shall not exceed five hundred dollars.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 132.]

AN ACT confirming a land claim in the State of Iowa, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the grant of lands to the then Territory of Iowa for the improvement of the Des Moines river, made by the act of August eight, eighteen hundred and forty-six, is hereby extended so as to include the alternate sections (designated by odd numbers) lying within five miles of said river, between the Raccoon fork and the northern boundary of said State; such lands are to be held and applied in accordance with the provisions of the original grant, except that the consent of Congress is hereby given to the application of a portion thereof to aid in the construction of the Keokuk, Fort Des Moines, and Minnesota Railroad, in accordance with the provisions of the act of the General Assembly of the State of Iowa approved March twenty-two, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight. And if any of said lands shall have been sold or otherwise disposed of by the United States before the passage of this act, excepting those released by the United States to the grantees of the State of Iowa under the joint resolution of March second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, the Secretary of the Interior is hereby directed to set apart and equal amount of lands within said State to be certified in lieu thereof: Provided, That if the said State shall have sold and conveyed any portion of the lands lying within the limits of this grant the title of which has proved invalid, any lands which shall be certified to said State in lieu thereof by virtue of the provisions of this act shall inure to and be held as a trust fund for the benefit of the person or persons respectively whose titles shall have failed as aforesaid.

Approved July 12, 1862.

[PUBLIC ACT—No. 133.]

AN ACT to establish certain post roads.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the bridge partly constructed across the Ohio river at Steubenville, in the State of Ohio, abutting on the Virginia shore of said river, is hereby declared to be a lawful structure: Provided, That when completed, if constructed without a draw, it shall leave an unobstructed headway in the channel of the river of not less than ninety feet above low water mark, and such channel or waterway shall have an unobstructed width of not less than three hundred feet between the piers next to said channel or water way, and one of the spans next adjoining thereto shall not be less than two hundred and twenty feet in length: or said bridge, if constructed with a draw, the same to be constructed under the limitations and conditions provided in the fourth section of this act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said bridge and Holliday's Cove railroad are hereby declared a public highway, and established a post road for the purpose of transmission of mails of the United States; and that the Steubenville and Indiana Railroad Company, chartered by the legislature of the State of Ohio, and the Holliday's Cove Railroad Company, chartered by the State of Virginia, or either of them, are authorized to complete, maintain, and operate said road and bridge when completed as set forth in the preceding section, any thing in any law or laws of the above-named State to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any other railroad company or companies, whose line or lines of road may now or shall hereafter be built to the Ohio river, above the mouth of the Big Sandy river, in accordance with the terms of the charter or charters of said company or companies, to build a bridge across said river for the more perfect connexion of any such roads and for the passage of trains thereof under the limitations and conditions hereinafter provided.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That any bridge erected under the privileges of this act may, at the option of the company or companies building the same, be built either as a drawbridge, with a pivot or other form of draw, or with unbroken and continuous spans: Provided, That if the said bridge shall be made with unbroken and continuous spans, it shall not be of less elevation than ninety feet above low water mark over the channel of the said river, nor in any case less than forty feet above extreme high water, as understood at the point of location, measuring for such elevation to the bottom chord of the bridge, nor shall the span of such bridge covering the main channel of the river be less than three hundred feet in length, with also not [illegible] next adjoining spans of not less than two hundred and twenty feet in length, and the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of the river as near as practicable: And provided also, That if any bridge built under this act shall be constructed as a draw bridge, the same shall be constructed with a span over the main channel of the river [illegible] at the time of the erection of the bridge of not less than three hundred feet in length [illegible] shall not be less than seventy feet [illegible] water mark, measuring to the bottom [illegible] of the bridge, and one of the next adjoining [illegible] less than two hundred and twenty [illegible] and that there shall be a pivot draw constructed in every such bridge at an accessible and navigable point, with spans of not less than one hundred feet in length on each side of the [illegible] pier of the draw: And provided [illegible] That said draw shall always be opened promptly upon reasonable signal for the passage [illegible] at the time, [illegible] permanent spans [illegible] except that said draw shall not be required to be opened when engines or trains are [illegible] bridge or when passenger trains [illegible] shall unnecessary delay be [illegible] opening of said draw after the passage of [illegible]

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That any bridge [illegible] according to the provisions of this act shall be lawful structures and shall be recognized and known as post routes, upon which also no higher charge shall be made for the transmission [illegible] the mails, the troops, and munitions [illegible] United States than the rate per mile which [illegible] company or companies erecting such bridge may [illegible] and the officers and crews of all vessels [illegible] navigating the [illegible] are required to regulate the use of the [illegible] of any pipes and chimneys [illegible] so as not to interfere with the elevation [illegible] of any of the bridges [illegible] the passage of this act.

Approved July 14, 1862.

BUCHTEL & CARDWELL'S
PICTURES ARE THE BEST IN OREGON

GEOLOGICAL WEALTH.—About thirty years ago search was made [illegible] the discovery that the ice fields of Siberia contained immense numbers of fossils of elephants and mastodons. Where they came from or how they got there is a problem that perhaps may never be solved; their existence, however, was no mere chimera, and as ivory is one of the most valuable commodities of trade in all nations, some utilitarian Englishman conceived the idea of turning these vestiges of a former epoch to a profitable account. Accordingly about the year 1835, Thompson, Beyer & Co., a rich London firm, fitted out an expedition to search for ivory in the Siberian ice. Novel and ridiculous as it seemed, the expedition was crowned with complete success. The ships returned to England richly laden with the choicest ivory, and even to the present time, although the world knows little about it, the ivory market is mainly supplied with ivory from the ice-fields of Siberia.

QUITE UNPROPER, BUT ORFUL SOOTHIN'.—A handsum young gal in our town was set up with one night by a noble specimen of the true American, with scissors in his vest pocket—I mean a dry goods clerk—and the young gal's mother heerin' suthin pop, arose from her couch under the impression that her old gal's boy, who was given to friskyness, was holding a wild revel on the root beer in the west room. But on openin' the door, she discovered it was huggin' an' kissin' which had awoken her from her peaceful repose—"My daughter, O my daughter," this fond mother did cry, "O, that I should live to see this doing in my own housen!"

"I know, dear mother," this sweet village maiden did unto her mamma quick reply, "that it is quite unproper, but it is orful soothin'."—Artemus Ward.

REVOLT OF THE "POOR WHITE TRASH."—The New Orleans Delta relates that the sugar lords of Assumption Parish, Louisiana, prevailed on Thomas O. Moore, late, and claiming to be present, Governor of that State, to send them a lot of guerrillas to help force the "poor white trash" into the rebel ranks. The Red River bandits came, swept the country, and corralled the poor white men of the place in one band, when they herded them awhile and put them through their facings. One morning a party of these men to the number of 150, procured a quantity of cartridges, with buck shot, chose a leader, declared they would not fight against the United States, took possession of the camp, and drove out the rebel officers. For two days they held the camp and on the third departed for their homes.

The 1st Minnesota has been honored with an appointment of three successive Colonels to the position of Brigadier Generals—Gorman, Dana and Sully—the only regiment in the United States service thus honored.

The losses of material under Pope, Miles and Ford, will equal fifty thousand stand of arms and one hundred pieces of ordinance, and the effect is to cause a scarcity of arms.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 11, 1862.

The Rebels Sorely Troubled.

The Confederated traitors are much exercised over the Emancipation proclamation. In the rebel Congress, certain resolutions bearing on that subject were referred to the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, and on October 1st, Semmes, of Louisiana, made the majority report, which, in substance, is thus:

"That on and after the 1st of January, 1863, all commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the enemy, except as hereinafter mentioned, when captured, shall be imprisoned at hard labor, or otherwise put at hard labor, until the termination of the war, or until the repeal of the act of the Congress of the United States, hereinbefore recited, or until otherwise determined by the President.

Every white person who shall act as a commissioned or non-commissioned officer, commanding negroes or mulattoes against the Confederate States, or who shall arm, organize train or prepare negroes or mulattoes for military service or aid them in any military enterprise against the Confederate States, shall, if captured, suffer death.

Every commissioned or non-commissioned officer of the enemy who shall incite slaves to rebellion, or pretend to give them freedom, under the aforementioned act of Congress and proclamation, by abducting, or inducing them to abscond, shall, if captured suffer death."

The minority of the Senate Judiciary Committee made this report:

"That from this day forth all rules of civilized warfare should be discarded in the future defense of our country, our liberties and our lives, against the fell design now openly avowed by the Government of the United States to annihilate or enslave us; and that a war of extermination should be henceforth waged against every invader whose hostile foot shall cross the boundaries of these Confederate States."

One of the Committee, by an understanding with said Committee, proposed the following bill:

"1. That if any person singly, or in organized bodies, shall, under pretense of waging war, kill or maim, or in anywise injure the person of any unarmed citizen of the Confederate States, or shall destroy, or seize, or damage the property, or invade the house or domicile, or insult the family of such unarmed citizen; or shall persuade or force any slave to abandon his owner, or shall by word or act, counsel or incite to servile insurrection, within the limits of the Confederate States, all such persons, if captured by the forces of the Confederate States, shall be treated as criminals and not as prisoners of war, and shall be tried by a military court, and upon conviction, suffer death.

2. That every person pretending to be a soldier or officer of the United States, who shall be captured on the soil of the Confederate States, after the first day of January, 1863, shall be presumed to have entered territory of the Confederate States with intent to incite insurrection and abet murder, and unless satisfactory proof be adduced to the contrary, before the military court before which the trial shall be had, shall suffer death. This section shall continue in force until the proclamation issued by Abraham Lincoln, dated at Washington, on the 22d day of September, 1862, shall be rescinded, and the policy therein announced shall be abandoned, and no longer."

All these things were ordered printed.

On the same day, in the rebel House of Representatives, Mr. Lyons, by the consent of the House, introduced a series of resolutions proclaiming the infamous character of Lincoln's late proclamation, exhorting the people of the Confederacy to kill every officer, soldier and sailor of the enemy found within their border, unless a regular prisoner of war; declaring that after the first of January, 1863, no officer of the enemy ought to be captured alive, or if recaptured shall be immediately hung; and offering a bounty of $20 and an annuity of $20 for life to every slave and free negro who shall, after the 1st day of January, 1863, kill one of the enemy.

In the Virginia Legislature the following was introduced, Sept. 22:

"Whereas, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, by his recent proclamation, is acting in stolid contempt of the principle of property in slaves of African descent, which is no less consecrated in their Federal Constitution than in ours, and is aiming, by his said proclamation, to excite a servile insurrection in our midst;

Resolved, therefore, that no person within this State shall be held to have committed any offense against the criminal laws thereof, or shall be tried or imprisoned, or required by any magistrate or judge, or police officer, to answer at any time for any act done in driving from the State, or putting to death by any means, any person, with or without arms, who may be found on our soil, aiding or abetting in any way to give effect in this State, or on its border, to the lawless and fiendish purposes of said proclamation."

We shall see what we shall see.

District Court.—The Fall term of the District Court for the Second Judicial District of Washington Territory was begun at Vancouver on Monday last, Judge J. E. Wyche presiding.

The Surrender of Harper's Ferry.—Among the facts already developed by the inquiries already made by the Military Commission of which General Hunter is Chairman, is the strange one that not a single rebel was wounded, or in any manner injured, during the so-called defense of Harper's Ferry. Our artillery, under Colonel Ford, appears to have been handled with especial desire that there should be "nobody hurt."

Broke Her Shaft.—The steamer Dallas is tied up at the Cascades. She broke her shaft on her second downward trip this week; between this place and Portland. How the mail is to come at all now, is a question.—Mountaineer.

From Lewiston.

We take the following items from the Golden Age of November 6th:

Col. Rector, the Superintendent of Indian affairs for Oregon, remained at the Agency one week, waiting for Mr. Hale, of Washington Territory, to make his appearance. He has failed to show himself, thus far, and Mr. Rector has returned to his duties in Salem.

Annuity Goods.—These goods are en route for Lewiston from Walla Walla, and are part of the annuities for the Nez Perces. We believe they have been five years in transitu—where they have been is, of course, unknown, or when they will get to their place of destination is a matter that does not trouble any one. One great cause of this delay, and of neglect to the Indians in this part of Washington Territory, is the extent of the District over which the Superintendent has control. The idea is preposterous that a Government Agent, residing 500 miles from here, or where duty calls him, should for a moment undertake to perform his duty. His duties are urgent, and require his attention in the immediate vicinity of his headquarters at Olympia. The extent of his jurisdiction embraces an area equal to one-fifth of the whole Atlantic States, and it is the heighth of folly to think for a moment that any one man can assume, and faithfully discharge his duties to the Government, as well as to the Indians. We call the attention of the Government to this subject, and desire to urge them to appoint an assistant Superintendent to reside here with the Nez Perces, who should be clothed with the same power.

Express Connection.—Mr. Dennee, of Haggard & Dennee's Pony Express has made an arrangement with Wells, Fargo & Co., and will hereafter carry the Express from this place to Elk City, on the route to Fort Owens and Fort Benton. The community are indebted to these gentlemen for their energy, and go-aheaditiveness in the above enterprise. We wish them success.

From a gentleman just in from Walla Walla we learn that Nelson Scott, one of the robbers of Mr. Berry and brother, has been tried before Judge Oliphant, found guilty and sentenced to fifteen years in the State's Prison. Wonder where our State's Prison is?

"Steamer Spray," Capt. Baughman, made her appearance again last Friday morning, bringing three hundred and sixty-six packages of merchandise, and our citizens were glad to behold her ploughing her way up Clearwater to her landing. The water has fallen considerable since Capt. Baughman made his previous trip, but she came through without any detentions. The Spray left on Saturday, Nov. 1st, with two hundred and thirty paying passengers, in whose hands were thousands of dollars of the "shining ore."

Boise Mines!—We have received during the week several accounts of the richness of those mines, that almost lead us to believe that gold is found in a basin or well. It is no doubt found in pockets as well as in crevices. It was so in certain localities in the Florence mines. Mr. Grant tells us that as high as $70 have been taken out of a pail of dirt. Men are flocking in from all quarters. Hundreds, he tells us, have left Powder River diggings for Boise. Gold is found over a large extent of country. Upwards of one hundred of our citizens have left and are preparing to leave Lewiston for these mines to winter. Several business men, believing that they can do better, have closed their business, and the cry is now, Hurrah for Boise! When are you going to leave? I'm off to-morrow!

New York, Nov. 3.—The Richmond Examiner quotes Gold at 250 premium, and silver 200.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Advices from Southeastern Missouri state that our forces at Pittman's Ferry, under Lazear, pushed on as far as Bolling's Mills, five miles from Pocahontas, where they fought the rebels under Burbridge, completely routing his forces and capturing a large number of prisoners, including many officers.

A later dispatch, dated October 31st, says he captured and dispersed two hundred rebels under Boone.

Fortress Monroe, Nov. 1.—The Richmond Examiner of October 30th contains a dispatch from Charleston, dated October 28th, announcing the capture in Bull's Bay (S. C.) of the steamer Angela, laden with valuable army stores, and bound for Charleston.

The Examiner says, from the statement of the surgeons from Aiken's Landing, in charge of wounded and paroled prisoners at that point, it appears that the sufferings of the Confederate prisoners only commence when they are released from Yankee thraldom.

The same paper says that the wagon train of supplies brought from Kentucky by Bragg was forty miles long, and that he brings a million yards of Kentucky jeans, with a large quantity of clothing, boots, shoes, 6,000 barrels of pork, 15,000 mules and horses, 8,000 beeves and a large lot of swine.

The Raleigh (N. C.) Express says the people of the eastern portion of North Carolina are becoming alarmed at the prospect of being overrun by the enemy, and are making preparations to remove their property to safe quarters. It calls upon the Confederate Government for prompt and energetic measures to hold that region against the enemy.

It is reported to-day that the rebels have destroyed two tunnels on the Nashville Railroad, and torn up the track for a considerable distance north of Gallatin, Tennessee. A large number of families are arriving in the Blue Grass region from the mountains, their homes having been desolated by the rebel army in its march to Cumberland Gap.

Bragg had a terrible march over the mountains in his retreat. Snow fell to the depth of ten inches. Many deaths ensued among the soldiers from hardships and exposure.

Position of General McClellan.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, October 10th, has the following:

The intimate friends of General McClellan in this city say that he has become convinced of the folly of endeavoring to conciliate the pro-slavery feeling of certain bitter partisan politicians in our loyal States; that he has never, since the war commenced, entertained any other sentiment than that of an avowed intention of crushing the rebellion at all hazards, according to the rules of civilized warfare, and those suggested by the statesmen in the civil Government.

Prominent Republicans here insist that he heartily indorses the President's policy of emancipation as a most salutary war measure. One of McClellan's most trusted friends, a general staff officer, is known to have drawn up the emancipation bill for the District of Columbia. Indeed, it cannot be denied that our young chieftain is in favor of using every honorable means in our grasp to crush the hateful rebellion. He and the President entertain precisely the same opinions as to the propriety of the emancipation of the slaves of the rebels. It is his desire that every one should sustain the present Administration, and favor a vigorous prosecution of the war.

And Still it Comes.—Two hundred pounds of gold dust was brought down from the Dalles last evening on the Julia per Wells, Fargo & Co's Express.

By Overland Telegraph.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE "OREGONIAN."]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Georgetown Fort destroyed by Federals.

Rebel Army crowding down to Dixie.

Election Returns.

Washington, Nov. 5.—The Secretary of War has ordered a Military Commission to be organized, to inquire into the conduct of Buell, in reference to his permitting the invasion of Kentucky by Bragg, and his failing to relieve Mumfordsville; his conduct during the battle of Perryville, and his allowing Bragg's forces to escape from Kentucky without attacking him.

Cairo, Nov. 4.—The Grenada Appeal, of Nov. 3d, says: "The truth is now manifest that we are occupying a somewhat precarious defensive situation; hence the disappointment and uneasiness prevalent among all classes."

New York, Nov. 5th.—The ships of war Dacotah and Vanderbilt, will probably sail to search for the Alabama.

A letter from steamer Norwich, off Georgetown, S. C., states that the fort at that place was destroyed and several rebels killed.—Contrabands report a good deal of sickness at Georgetown; they also report that a six gun floating battery and a ten inch thick iron clad vessel are being built at Charleston. Four large steamers, laden with cotton, are there awaiting an opportunity to run the blockade.

Washington, Nov. 5th.—A dispatch from Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac says: From the heights a favorable view of Shenandoah Valley was had, and no large body of the enemy was to be seen.

The command of cavalry and artillery, under Pleasanton, occupied Piedmont last night. This morning they pushed on, and after a spirited skirmish occupied Marquette. They now hold the approaches to Manassas and Chester Gap.

Rebel cavalry showed themselves to-day opposite Snicker's Gap. Gen. McClellan spent most of the afternoon at the top of Ashby's Gap, taking observations of the Shenandoah Valley.

Washington, Nov. 5.—Information from Manassas says, that portion of Sickles's command, sent to look after Orange and Alexandria Railroad, found it was in better condition than expected.

Fortress Monroe, Nov. 5.—The Richmond "Examiner" of 1st says, the recent movements of our troops indicate the entire evacuation of Northern Virginia, or that their movements are made in reference to the reported advance of McClellan through Loudon county. It also says a close examination of Commissary and Quartermaster Department will disclose a degree of recklessness entirely inexcusable, and well calculated to depreciate the currency of Government if it had no other evil effect.

New York, Nov. 5.—Full returns from this city give Seymour over 31,000 majority. The "Tribune" concedes his election. In New Jersey the Democrats carry the Lower House and probably the Senate.

They will have a majority on joint ballot, which secures the election of a Senator.—They elect Governor by upwards of 10,000 majority.

Milwaukie, Nov. 5.—The Democrats of Wisconsin elect two Congressmen, and the Republicans three.

Boston, Nov. 5.—The returns from 125 towns gives Andrew, Rep., for Governor, 67,450, Gen. Devens, People's Union candidate, 48,380. Andrew's majority will be about 20,000.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The Illinois Congressional delegation stands eight Democrats to five Republicans.

St. Louis, Nov. 5.—The radical emancipation ticket in this county is undoubtedly elected. Blair's friends claim his election but the radicals think the soldier's vote will elect Samuel Knox.

Leavenworth, Nov. 5.—Scattering returns in Kansas, indicate the election of the Republican ticket.

San Francisco, Nov. 5th.—The following was received by the Mayor:

New York, Nov. 4.

To H. F. Teschmacher and Jas. Otis.—Gentlemen—Your bounty overpowers us: Thirty-five thousand nine hundred and fifty-six dollars more from towns in California. One hundred and thirty thousand sick and wounded men will forget their pains for a moment when they learn you are making their sorrows your own. Let Stockton, Santa Clara, and each and every contributor whose names are not yet known receive the heartfelt gratitude of our army and country. (Signed,)

Henry W. Bellows, President.

San Francisco, November 3d.—Zeil of Zeil & Berthaau, who was thrown from a buggy, is still insensible, and supposed to be fatally injured.

At one o'clock p. m. the United States Assistant Treasurer paid out his last legal tender note, and resumed payment in gold coin. A full supply of paper is expected by the steamer now due.

It was reported that two companies are forming in this city to attempt the recovery of the Golden Gate treasure.

Lime Point will be sold on the 27th by Sheriff's sale, at San Rafael.

The list of the California cavalry company is full, but applications from the interior will be received, as superior men are wanted. The company will not start eastward until the 1st of December.

The Board of Supervisors to-night passed resolutions asking the Legislature to authorize the city, by special Act, to appropriate $20,000, to pay the passage of the California cavalry to New York. In the meantime the necessary funds will be advanced by citizens.

Agency Notice.—Mr. L. P. Fisher is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco to receive advertisements, and transact business for the Daily and Weekly Oregonian. Office—No. 1 Washington street, nearly opposite Maguire's Opera House.

Dr. Baker's Pain Panacea.—For the cure of pain in the Stomach, Back and Bowels; Burns, Bruises, Cuts and Swellings; Colic, Diarrhoea and Rheumatism; Headache, Toothache and Earache. Pain cannot exist where this Remedy is faithfully used. Give it a trial and you will find it the greatest PAIN CURING REMEDY yet discovered. A cure is certain in all cases of Dyspepsia, Weak Breast, Liver Complaint, General Debility, Fever and Ague, Canker, Putrid Sore Throat, Spine and Kidney Diseases, etc., etc. FAMILIES should never be without a supply of it in the house. Directions are fully given and particularly adapted to the diseases for which the "PAIN PANACEA" is recommended. See advertisement in another column.

White's Fever and Ague Drops.—For the [illegible] of AGUE, PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY.

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success. Indeed, in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure in Ague especially, one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none of more than two bottles required.

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements, but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone. A cure is guaranteed in [illegible] cases out of ten.

Prepared only by ROBERT WHITE, Chemist and Druggist, Main street, Placerville, and Broadway, [illegible]. For sale by all respectable Druggists throughout the State.

White's Patent Lever Trusses.—These instruments are recommended to the public as the best ever yet invented. The principle is new and different from any other. The Pad works over a Knuckle, giving it a circular INWARD and UPWARD motion, thus being able to support the rupture with half the pressure required by other Trusses. The pain consequent upon heavy pressure is thereby avoided.

These instruments will not rust, and are the lightest, most durable and most cleanly of all others. They can be washed at pleasure. Many persons have been cured by them of ruptures of several years standing.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The November term of the Circuit Court for the County of Multnomah, convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Judge Shattuck presiding. The day was principally occupied in calling and empannelling the grand and petit juries for the term, and in hearing the usual amount of excuses. We noticed a goodly number of legal gentlemen at the bar, and are informed that there is a large docket to clear. Several cases were called and order of continuance allowed, and two or three cases dismissed. The following rule was adopted in the matter of excuses from serving as jurors:

Applications to be excused from serving as jurors must be made by an attorney of this Court, on behalf of the applicant, and must be based upon the oath or affidavit of the party, or on a certificate of membership in a fire company in this city, and when the cause assigned is injury to the interests of the party or of the public it must appear how, wherein, and to what extent such injury is likely to accrue, and that due diligence has been used to have the supposed injury prevented, and in all cases except those where a party is exempted by Statute or incapacitated by sickness, the applicant will be required to procure a substitute whom the Sheriff will be willing to call, and the Court to receive as a juror.

NEAT.—The favorite steamer Wilson G. Hunt has been handsomely and substantially repaired, painted and fitted up, presenting a splendid and magnificent appearance, and will, we understand, renew her trips to Cascades and back, commencing on Wednesday—to-morrow. This excellent steamer has been refitted and improved at considerable cost, making her in every way comfortable and pleasant, safe and secure for the accommodation of passengers and freight going to and returning from the upper Columbia river country, and as she is by far the swiftest steamer on the route, will be patronized by all who love nice things or prefer safe and speedy conveyance.

THAT HOLE.—We again call the attention of the Street Commissioner to an ugly place at the crossing of Taylor and Front street.—That place seems hard to keep in repair, or the parties whose duty it is to attend to it have never completed the job as it should be. There is now a great hole large enough to cripple any one who might accidentally fall in, and should be repaired immediately, and done in a substantial manner.

CHANGE OF TIME.—We are informed by Capt. Strang, that the daily trips of the steamer Express have been changed, by which she will only make one trip each day, to Oregon City and back, leaving here at 10 o'clock A. M.; returning, leave Oregon City at 3 o'clock P. M.

ARRIVAL.—The Julia arrived last evening from the Cascades with 142 passengers and [illegible] head of horses. As usual a large and noisy crowd assembled upon the wharf at the Pioneer Hotel to witness the landing of passengers and greet friends and acquaintances and hear the news. No news of importance was received, all being quiet and easy on the Upper Columbia.

THANKS.—To Wells, Fargo & Co and Mossman & Co.'s Expresses for files of up country papers, per Julia, last night.

DON'T DRINK MUCH WATER.—A person in good health, and in the moderate pursuit of business, does not feel like drinking water, even in Summer time, if not very thirsty. In fact great habitual thirst in Summer is the sign of a depraved appetite, resulting from bad habits, or it is a proof of internal fever, and the indulgence of even so simple a thing as drinking cold water largely in summer time, especially in the early part of the day, will produce a disordered state of the system. Most persons have experienced more or less discomfort from drinking largely of cold water. If we drink a great deal, we must perspire a great deal. This perspiration induces a greater evaporation of heat from the surface than some have to spare, the result is a chill, then comes the reaction of fever. Many a person arises from the dinner or tea-table in June chilly because too much cold fluids have been taken. Those who drink little or nothing, even of cold water, in Summer, till the afternoon, will be more vigorous, more full of health, and much more free from bodily discomfort than those who place no restraint on their potations.—Hall's Journal of Health.

FIELD'S STEAMED OYSTERS!

MR. A. FIELD, whose Oysters have long enjoyed the highest reputation in this market, has recently invented an entirely new process of cooking, which possesses every advantage over those hitherto employed. It so preserves the natural flavor, freshness and shape of the Oyster that they may be either Stewed, Fried, Scolloped, or [illegible] Roasted—in fact cooked in any manner equal to the taste of those just taken from the shell. They will not be broken into pieces by land travel, however lengthy, and will retain their sweetness, after the can is cut, longer than [illegible] by any other method.

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, easily kept in order, should make a tight stitch, [illegible] of the material and all that can be sewed.

It should be able to sew cotton thread or silk directly from the spool, [illegible] from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin [illegible] rapidity and without [illegible]. It should be able to make the [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] should have a straight needle, curved needles being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work and of using different colored thread or silk above or below to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed—no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts [illegible] and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night. It will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

[illegible]
RICHARD McCLARIN

THE QUAKER VOLUNTEER.

His day's work done—a Quaker sat
Before a blazing, cheerful fire,
A pretty woman by his side,
What more could mortal man desire?
His supper eaten—pets in bed,
His table well with books supplied,
No Regal Prince more blest than he,
In all the noisy world beside.

Life with his spouse, was sunny morn,
The hours sped gaily, sweetly past.
Each day, with her, was crowned with bliss,
No cloud his tranquil sky o'ercast—
For her he lived, O, gallant thought,
For her beat strong his manly breast,
How could he leave her for the wars?
The cruel thought he half suppressed.

Despite of creeds, despite of rules,
His spirit yearned to share the strife,
To grapple with the haughty foe
He asked permission of his wife;
His soul was kindled to a flame,
Nor home, nor spouse, could brook his zeal;
"Amy, thee wilt, thee wilt consent
That I defend my country's weal.

"Nathan, my dear, thee canst but know,
To thy sweet will, my own, I bow,
To 'love and cherish and obey,'
I pledged thee in my marriage vow,
'Tis hard to tear thee from my love,
'Tis hard to willingly comply,
'Tis hard to share our home alone,
But harder, Nathan, to deny."

The Quaker mused—his heart was stirred,
He watched the glowing, blazing fire,
Emblem of inward flames aglow,
Which every moment mounted higher;
"Amy," said he, "I can't abide,
The logic of our Quaker schools,
And listning to the voice within,
He doffed for once his Quaker rules.

Next day he donned the martial suit,
And mounted on his charging steed,
He bent, and kissed a sweet adieu,
While she a homily did read—
"Nathan, my dear, thee wilt take care,
And ne'er return to wound my pride,
By coming home, surcharged with lead
Received, alas! in thy back-side.*"

"Amy," said Nathan, as he placed
Upon her cheek the parting kiss,
"Thee ne'er shalt hear, of him you love,
A deed so cowardly as this."
Farewells and love the pair exchanged,
And prayed to meet another day,
Then dashed the soldier out of sight
Of wife and home, to join the fray.

When Freedom's gallant sons pour out
Their loyal blood, in gory pools,
Let Quakers join to strike a blow,
Despite their training and their schools;
Henceforth in history's golden urn,
Shall stand recorded—as their due,
How Quakers fought for human rights,
In eighteen hundred sixty-two!

S. B. ROCKWELL.

SAN GABRIEL MISSION, Cal., Oct. 11, 1862.

*General Green, a Quaker of Revolutionary memory, was strongly opposed by his mother on enlisting in the service. When she found her entreaties were in vain, she said—"If thee wilt go, go and fight like a man, and never return with a wound in thy back."

World's Horse Fair.

At the late World's Horse Fair, at Chicago, the prizes for the best stallions of any breed, 2 years old, were gained as stated below. It will be seen that in all the winners, the Vermont Black Hawk was largely present:

Prizes. L. L. Dorsey, Louisville, Ky., Patsey, 1st premium, $30; Elias Dorsey, Louisville, Ky., Barefoot, 2d premium, $20; Elias Dorsey, Louisville, Ky., Boston, 3d premium, $10. Patsey, the winner of the first premium, is a Green Mountain Black Hawk stallion; dam by Vermont Morgan. Barefoot, the winner of the 2d premium, is a dark chestnut Green Mountain Black Hawk stallion; dam by Imp. Barefoot; g. dam by Jackson's old Pacolet. Boston, the winner of the 3d premium, is a dark chestnut Green Mountain Black Hawk stallion; dam by Old Boston; g. dam by Grey Medoc.

For the best stallion, 4 years old or over, a sweepstakes premium was gained by C. F. Crozier of Baltimore's J. J. Crittenden. The Committee gave honorary ribbons to O. Dimmock of Ohio's Woful, and to Capt. Buford belonging to H. H. Yates of Chicago, Young Ethan Allen belonging to Lloyd Hawes of Chicago, Addison Jr. belonging to Wm. Benton, Fort Atkinson, Wis., and to other horses entered. John J. Crittenden is a mahogany bay, 15¾ hands high, black legs, mane and tail, 7 years old, sound, 3 parts Messenger and 1 part Black Hawk; sired by the Benson Horse, he by Hill's Black Hawk out of the thoroughbred Messenger mare Kate Kearney; his dam is out of Iola, own sister of Kate Kearney. Woful is a mahogany horse, 15¼ hands high, 8 years old; has gone in 1.30, doing half a mile in 1.14½; won $600 premium over Clinton and Washtenaw Chief, doing 5th heat in 2.35. He is sired by Long Island Black Hawk; he by Andrew Jackson; dam sired by Whip. Young Ethan Allen is a light, yellow bay, long black tail and mane, 3 white feet, stripe in face, high action and fine limbs. He is said to be a perfect picture of the old horse, Ethan Allen, except that he is heavier. He is sired by Ethan Allen, dam by Lady Orange, bred by S. J. Caton, of Roxbury, Mass., green horse. He took first premium as 4-year old at Springfield last year, and has taken first premiums as 3-year-old, 2-year-old, and of sucking colt, at Eastern fairs. Addison, Jr., is a rare black, 15¾ hands high, black mane and tail, weighing 1000 pounds, 7 years old; sired by Addison 1st, he by David Hill's Black Hawk; dam sired by Young Engineer, he by Old Engineer, he by Bishop Hambletonian, he by Imp. Messenger; taking 1st premium in his own county for 2 years, and 2d premium at the National Horse Show at Janesville.

In Venango County, Pennsylvania, is a queer fellow by the name of Tom Barton, who drinks and stutters, and stutters and drinks. He has a brother Jim, who is glib of tongue, and was a great liar—we hope he has reformed, for he professed to become a good man, and was baptized in the river. It was a bitter cold day in winter, and the ice had to be cut to make a place for the ceremony. Tom was in attendance and close by. As Jim came up out of the water, Tom said to him:

"Is it c-c-c-cold, Jim?"

"No," replied Jim; "not at all."

"D-d-d-dip him again m-m-minister," cried Tom; "he l-l-lies yet!"

You may wish to get a wife without a failing; but what if the lady, after you find her, is in want of a husband of the same character?

Quilp says the gauge of a man's patriotism will be the measure of his face when he pays his war tax. Long face little loyalty—and vice versa.

THE STATESMAN has reliable correspondents in all the mining regions of Oregon, and Washington Territory—Powder River, Salmon River, Oro Fino, Colville, and the Bitter Root and Deer Lodge Valleys; and its facilities for obtaining news from these localities, both through its correspondents and the expresses running from Walla Walla to those points, are superior to those of any other paper published in Oregon or Washington Territory.

☞ The paper is the same size as the Weekly Oregonian, and its large circulation in all the mining regions above mentioned renders it, to merchants and others, an excellent advertising medium. aug5-lmdw

Notice.

I AM DULY RECEIVING COMMUNICATIONS respecting the United States Excise Tax. This is to give notice to all concerned that I have divided Oregon into ten districts, each comprising the following Counties, viz.:

District No. 1—Tillamook, Clatsop and Columbia.
District No. 2—Washington and Yamhill.
District No. 3—Multnomah.
District No. 4—Clackamas and Marion.
District No. 5—Polk and Benton.
District No. 6—Linn and Lane.
District No. 7—Douglas and Umpqua.
District No. 8—Coos and Curry.
District No. 9—Josephine and Jackson.
District No. 10—Wasco.

As soon as possible I shall appoint one Deputy in each District, and furnish them with their necessary papers, of which due notice will be given.

U. S. ASSESSOR'S NOTICE.

PERSONS SUBJECT TO EXCISE DUTIES under the Revenue Law of the United States, approved July 1st, 1862, entitled "An Act to provide Internal Revenue for the support of the Government, and to pay Interest on the Public Debt," are hereby notified that the law went into operation on the 1st of September.

All persons engaged in occupations requiring daily, tri-monthly, monthly, or quarterly records or returns, are informed that the Assessor's Department will be organized as speedily as possible. Meantime THEIR RECORDS should commence September 1st, in order to insure uniform justice to themselves and the Government, as the law will be retrospective in its application to all classes subject to excise, whatever necessary delay may occur in organizing the Department. The Section relating to Stamps will take effect from and after October 1st.
